

2012 Annual Dinner Sponsorship Opportunities

Wednesday - April 11, 2012

Historic Hotel Woodland - 436 Main Street - Woodland, CA 95695

Until the formation of Soil Conservation Districts, there was no organized mechanism for disseminating resource conservation information, expertise, and assistance. Farmers and ranchers often had no one to turn to for soil and water conservation information and assistance. It took a crisis of national proportions, the Dust Bowl, to bring this about. Farmers and ranchers still need up-to-date scientific information and techniques to manage the natural resources on their properties, and the need for ongoing conservation education and assistance among all sectors of the public is as great or greater than it ever has been. RCDs remain one of the primary links between local people and government on issues related to conservation. With continuing pressure on our natural resources and stresses on the landscape from human activities, our work will be needed far into the future.

Please consider investing in the future of Yolo County's agricultural and natural resources by becoming a sponsor of the Yolo County RCD's 2012 Annual Dinner.

Range Camp $450 Sponsorship

It takes $450 to send one local high school student to Range Camp. The 27th Annual Range and Natural Resources Camp at Elkus Youth Ranch, in Half Moon Bay, is a great opportunity for students 15-18 years old to discover the science and management of natural resources from experienced professionals and university faculty. This sponsorship level includes VIP seating, acknowledgement in the program, and recognition at the event, on our website, and in press releases to local media outlets.

$250 Sponsorship

Includes acknowledgement in the program and recognition at the event, on our website, and in press releases to local media outlets.

Auction Donation

Donation of an item to be included in the silent auction the evening of the event includes recognition at the event.

Please return the sponsor form below (with check if applicable), to the Yolo County Resource Conservation District at the address listed below. Thank you for your support!
